

Says

What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?

What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

General elections were held in india in sevenphases from 11 April to 19 may 2019 to elect the members of the 17th Lok sabha.

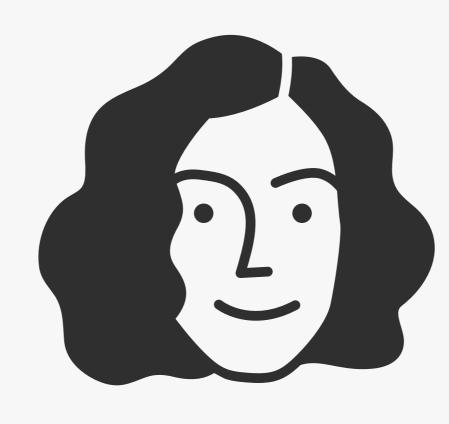

Votes were counted and the result was declared on 23 may.

The election resulteed in a landslide victory for the BJP which won 303 seats and formed the government.

Around 912 million peole were eligible to vote, and voter turnout was over 67 percent.

the highest ever, as well as the highest ever partiicpation by women voters.

More than 55,000 crore was spent in Indias's 2019 lok sabha elections, making it the world's most expensive.

Persona's name

Political Juggernauts:A Quantitive Analysis of candidates in the 2019 Lok Sabha Elections.

Majority of the respondents were from the class one service,Ph.D. holders and all are educated.

A sample survey was conducted among indian educated elites to know the poliyical behavior of this particular class.

The samle survey was conducted between 25th April to 30th April 2019 mostly between 3rd and 4th phase of current elections.

So what is this regret?It is that feeling hits you when you see the market fall after your monthly SIP installment have been credited-oh i missed a di again.

The BJP began the election as the front runner.This war clear form the beganning, whether from talking to voters, looking at the pre election polls or the party's control of the narrative.

The 2019 elections are finally coming to close with a thumping win for the ruling party and there is some sense of 'anxiety', specially among those who supported the parties that lost the mandate.

Feels

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

